Funding withdrawn from study on city expansion

By David Weller

A Sacramento-based company which has been looking at an area to the north of West Sacramento for development has withdrawn its request for a Sphere of Influence (SOI) study of the city of West Sacramento.

An SOI is a guidance document prepared by county staff which establishes the parameters for future city boundary changes. A study is normally done every ten years.

Merwyn and Associates offered earlier this year to pay the costs of an early study in the hope that it may lead to future extension of the northern city border.

Two weeks ago the company sent a letter to the Yolo County LAFCO (Local Area Formation Commission) saying that it was no longer interested in pursuing the study. "It said that they feel that having talked to some of the people involved, they are not ready to pursue the project at this time," according to Elizabeth Kempler, director of the county LAFCO office.

The project Merwyn and Associates had been proposing was an ambitious mixed use residential and commercial development with an eye toward futuristic housing and planned neighborhood designs.

A Ramos partnership also had a proposal several years ago for another development north of town.

The last SOI done for West Sacramento was completed in 1986. It was done in conjunction with city incorporation and set the area of influence at the city borders.

A lot of open spaces were left within the boundaries in order to give the new city room to grow

Water quality concerns at school lead to switch to bottled water

By David Weller

Our Lady of Grace School has switched to bottled drinking water since a test by the county indicated higher-than-normal levels of radioactivity in well water drawn for the school.

School officials could not be reached for comment Tuesday afternoon. The school, one of relatively few West Sacramento sites not relying on the city's treated river water, is located on Linden Rd.

The sample was taken two weeks ago during a routine test by the Yolo County Department of Environmental Health. The county is currently awaiting the results of additional samples sent to the state Department of Health and to a private testing company.

According to the Thomas To, Yolo County Director of Environmental Health false test results do occur at times because of lab errors.

Additional testing is now being done by the state in order to determine if the problem is real or simply a result of mistakes in the lab.

The new test results, due later this week, will determine if additional investigation by the county is needed.

The Dance Factory "Dance Vision" performers show some smooth moves as part of the Community Day Parade on Sunday

By Steve Marschke

Pity the baton twirlers:

Brisk north winds visited the 20th annual West Sacramento Community Day Parade, and while that may have presented challenges to some of the entrants, it did not dampen spirits.

About 1,000 people participated in the parade -- including every local school. And parade coordinator Elaine Roberts of the West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce estimated that about 3,000 watched from the sidewalks of West Capitol Ave.

"The parade was the biggest one we've had in years," commented Steve Roberts, the executive director of the chamber.

Elaine Roberts added that there were about 100 different parade entries, from floats to bands to dance troupes and drill teams.

"You had every school in West Sacramento, plus some people from out of town. They each bring people with them to watch."

The result was about three and a half hours of parading.

Grand marshal was "Butch" Metzger, a former Major League Baseball rookie of the year in 1976 with the San Diego Padres, whose career has also taken him to other teams including the San Francisco Giants.

Metzger is now retired from baseball. He is a firefighter for the City of West Sacramento.

A lot of people contributed to this year's parade, said Elaine Roberts. Financial sponsors included Farmers Rice Cooperative, the Rotary Club, the West Sacramento Downtown Association, the Reno Club and the Sacramento Steamship Navigation Company.

Port commission takes exception to Grand Jury comments

Chairman's response suggests better oversight of grand juries by Sacramento judges

By David Weller

The Port Commission has issued its response to the unfavorable Sacramento County Grand Jury report issued earlier this year.

In the response, the commission takes issue with each of the four Grand Jury findings and finds fault with the entire investigation.

"Although the Port Commission was not privy to the original complaint, we believe the complaint as described in the report lacked merit and filed to provide sufficient reason for an investigation.

"Once the investigation began, the Grand Jury did not appear to sufficiently examine materials submitted to them for their review, and their research appeared to be superficial and inadequate. This resulted in conclusions that were unfounded. In many cases, what they recommended as corrective actions were long-standing port policies.

"Given the port's experience with this misguided investigation, the Port Commission respectfully recommends that consideration be given to a tighter judicial control of the Grand Jury process," said the response, signed by Port Commission Chairman Stan Hazelroth.

The original complaint had been made by former Port Commissioner Vickie Bingham.

To the Grand Jury's finding that the Port Commission does not adhere to the Brown Act and recommendation that it adopt Robert's Rules of Order for procedures governing the meetings, the commission responded that it does adhere to the Brown Act and has been using Robert's Rules of Order since 1963.

> '. . . the Grand Jury did not appear to sufficiently examine materials submitted to them for their review, and their research appeared to be superficial and inadequate.'
> — Port chairman Stan Hazelroth

To the recommendation that a manual of policies and procedures manual be developed to guide personnel and operational activities, including travel, meals, and service club membership, the commission answered that the port is developing a manual, but that the report ignored the existing written policies which have "provided guidelines for port personnel for many years."

To the recommendation that a system of budgetary control be put in place, the commission responded that budgetary controls already exist, including monthly budgetary reports to the commission.

"Management is given the reasonable prerogative within the budget to operate the day-to-day operations of the port, including determining when travel is appropriate and what business expenses are reasonable. Ample policy exists to guide those decisions," the response said.

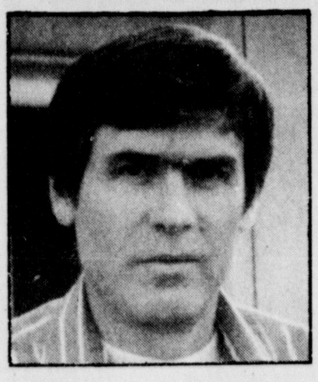
To the final recommendation was that Port Commissioners "be urged to accept more fiduciary responsibility for establishing policy and developing a procedure for regular reporting on the (port's) fiscal status."

The commission responded that "such a process exists, and it was unfair of the Grand Jury to make such a finding based on their limited investigation and discussion with only three Port Commissioners other that the complainant."

The commission also pointed to independent yearly audits as evidence of its "fiscal accountability."

Son's homecoming honor brings thrill for Dad

My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

Early last week, my oldest son, Ty, came home from school and triumphantly announced that he had been chosen to be one of the senior King candidates at this year's Homecoming ceremonies at River City High School.

"Congratulations," I said, "but what exactly does that mean?"

"Well," he explained, "among other things, it means that you have to hurry up and find me a fancy new convertible for me and one of the Queen candidates to drive around in during halftime at the football game next Friday night."

"What?" I asked with alarm.

"It also means I only have about six days to get a date for the Homecoming dance," he added with no apparent concern.

"But back to this fancy convertible thing," I said. "Just how did I get elected to serve on the car committee?"

"All the King and Queen candidates have to come up with their own wheels for the ceremonies at the football game and for the parade on Sunday," he explained.

"And you have to have a convertible?"

"You don't want me driving around the football field in the back of your Ford Ranger, do you?" he asked with youthful indignation.

As much as that idea appealed to me, I went ahead and made a phone call to the only person I know who owns a fancy convertible, and who by one of life's simple little twists of fate, also happens to be the girl I took to my Homecoming dance some 30 years ago. "Alicia," I said, "I promise to take really good care of it and get it back to you as soon as possible."

Being the generous person she is, she said, "Don't be silly. I'll get it all cleaned up and you can keep it for as long as you want."

So, last Friday afternoon, about four hours before the River City Homecoming football game was to kickoff (and what a game it turned out to be!), I found myself puttering over to Alicia's house to exchange my gutless, gray pickup truck for her powerful burgundy Mercedes Benz convertible. As I drove along, I thought all the way back to my 19th year, when with the help of some money I had won in a series of poker games at my fraternity house, I came up with the down payment to buy my first brand new car -- a sporty ocean blue Chevy Malibu. I recalled how at first I thought I had died and gone to heaven, only to discover a few months later that I couldn't keep making the payments and that my fancy new car had become a real pain in the butt. I had to keep it squeaky clean, always watch where I parked the darn thing, and even guard it with my life from time to time. I vowed never again to own a vehicle others might drool over and immediately traded it in for what turned out to be my first of three very reliable Ford Pintos.

However, as I sped off in Alicia's absolutely gorgeous Mercedes convertible, with the afternoon sun warming my face and the wind gently blowing through my hair, a number of very interesting things began to happen. I suddenly found myself settling down a little deeper into my plush bucket seat and slipping on my sun glasses, determined to look really cool when I came to my first stop light. And I noticed that people were actually looking at me as I drove along, something that rarely happens when I am behind the wheel of my Ford Ranger. And even more alarming than that, it dawned on me that complete strangers -- of the opposite sex no less -- were smiling at me, something that NEVER happens when I'm in the pickup. And when I came to my first stop light, and a very nice looking lady actually waved at me, I immediately came to the somewhat thrilling conclusion that for the first time in my life, I was cruising around in a bona fide babe-mobile!

It definitely has to be the car, I whispered to myself, fully aware of the fact that I hadn't gotten any better looking in the past 10 minutes. But what the heck, I thought to myself, if a bunch of obviously shallow women are going to insist on smiling and waving at you just because of the car you're driving, the very least you can do is take the longest possible route home.

When I finally pulled into my driveway only minutes before I was supposed to have the Mercedes over at the football field, my wife and son both wanted to know what had taken me so long.

"The traffic was just murder," I explained with a big grin that seemed to confuse them, "and I must have ran into every darn red light in Sacramento."

Have a safe and fun Halloween, in the style of Marine World Africa

Parents and children looking for a safe alternative to trick-or-treating can spend an evening raising their spirits at Marine World Africa USA's annual Fright Night on Friday, October 27, from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Children can trick-or-treat near Walrus Experience, venture through a haunted house filled with live sharks, and meet Frankenstein on stilts as just a few of the spooky, fun features scheduled for the evening.

Marine World's education department transforms "Shark Experience" into a haunted house, and turns the pathways between the "Sea Lion Show" and "Walrus Experience" into a unique, Marine World-style trick-or-treating opportunity. Children and adults are invited to dress in their scariest attire and compete for prizes in the annual costume contest, one of many highlights at this popular Halloween weekend event. Entertainment includes the "Boogie Down Jugglers," a live show inside the park's Showcase Theater, and "The Rhythm Cats," a two-piece band playing at Lakeside Plaza. Animal visits and refreshments round out the evening's special offerings.

Tickets are available at Marine World's front gate the evening of the event. Admission to Fright Night is $12 for children and adults, and free for tots under 3. Fright Night is a separate event from the park's regular daytime shows and attractions, which conclude at 5:30 p.m. Marine World asks that all children attending Fright Night be accompanied by an adult. For reservations and information, call the education department at (707) 644-4000, ext. 435.

Exciting finish in RC win

By Khaled Dastagirzada
River City High School Football Team

The River City Raiders faced off against the Colfax Falcons in their homecoming game. The Raider crowd was ready, but the question remained -- was the Raider football team ready?

The fourth quarter was one of the most exciting quarters ever viewed in the high school, collegiate, and professional level. The Raiders defeated the Falcons by a score of 28-21, but it took a heart-pounding, final three minutes of non-stop football for the Raiders to come out on top.

The Raiders were forced to punt on their first drive, but that proved to be only for the better when Colfax fumbled and R.C. recovered the ball on the Falcons' 15-yard line. That set up a three-yard touchdown run by Josh Castro, with Peter Santizo tacking on the extra point. Colfax put on a decent drive that resulted in a field goal attempt, but the kicker hooked it wide to the left. On the other side of the field, one could see the Falcons' head coach throwing his play papers to the ground in frustration. That field goal incident evened out when Castro picked up 27 yards on a reverse that set up a field goal for the Raiders, and Santizo hooked it to the left also. Will Welcher, who had been pounding the Falcons' quarterback throughout the game, got his first sack of the night. That forced Colfax to punt and River City made them pay when Gary Herren threw a rare, 69-yard touchdown pass to Angel Cardenas, putting the Raiders ahead, 14 to 0. Not long afterwards, Cardenas picked off the Falcons' quarterback, which helped the Raiders go into the locker room with a 14-0 lead.

The Raiders came out flaring in the third quarter when Herren connected again on a 27-yard pass to Cardenas. Castro then carried the ball for 10 yards and another Raider first down. Herren, who appeared to be in the driver's seat, hopped over to the passenger side when he was picked off by #14 of the Falcons. It was returned for 74 yards before Steve Hawkinson was able to take him down at the one-yard line. Number 32 for Colfax was able to run it in from one yard out for the Falcons' first score of the game. On the Raiders' following drive, Castro, just when he appeared to be going down, broke loose and picked up 36 yards for a big first down. That set up another field goal for R.C., but this time the snap was too high, and Santizo had to throw himself on the ball before the Falcons could pick it up and convert. The third quarter ended in favor of the Raiders with a score of 14 to 7.

Now it was time for the final and most exciting quarter of the game. The Falcons' quarterback started off the quarter by throwing an interception to Dave Jernigan. Castro picked up another first down when he carried the ball for 40 yards, and then he took it in from seven yards out to put the Raiders ahead 20 to 7. Santizo increased the lead by one with the extra point. Cardenas got his second interception of the game, and now River City felt as if they had pinned the final nail in the coffin. Colfax received the ball with three minutes and eight seconds left in the game. Number 34 for Colfax caught a slant pass and took it down the field for a 50-yard touchdown. The extra point failed and the score was now 21 to 13. That stunned the River City side of the field, but no one felt that Colfax could actually pull it off. Colfax did the on-side kick, and the ball was loose -- the Falcons recovered. Their following play was a 48-yard touchdown pass to the left corner of the end zone and now it felt as if that final nail was becoming loose. Colfax set up for the two-point conversion, to try and tie. The Falcons' quarterback got the snap, faked the hand-off and threw it to #3, which tied the game at 21. The Raider crowd and team were in total disbelief. The Raiders received the ball with two minutes left. The Falcons' secondary expected a deep pass, but Herren threw a short dump pass to Jimmy Timas. Timas had a set of blockers in front of him and was able to score from 76 yards out. The extra point was good and the Raiders had the final lead, 28 to

There was a "whole lot of shaking going on" in St. Louis last Sunday as Elvis and the 49ers (5-2) rocked the Rams with a 44-10 mugging.

The 49ers were playing without MVP Steve Young, who is out for three weeks with a bad left shoulder.

Elvis completed 11 of 14 passes, including a 35 yard touchdown on his first play from scrimmage. Ken Norton, Jr., intercepted two passes from Rams QB Chris Miller and returned both of them for touchdowns. The Niners' victory put them into a three-way tie for first place with the Rams and Falcons in the Western division.

The 49ers play the New Orleans Saints (1-6) on Sunday at 1 p.m., at the new 3Com Park in San Francisco.

The Oakland Raiders played without their starting QB, Jeff Hostetler, and pulled out a 30-17 victory over the Colts. The Raiders used the old bomb from 40-year old QB Vince Evans to the young Rocket Ismail for two long touchdowns. The Raiders' defense took over from there as the Raiders head into their bye week with a 6-2 record.

The Atlanta Braves lead the World Series 2-0 as the Series moves to Cleveland. The Braves' pitching has stopped the heart of the Indians' batting order with Baerga, Belle, Murray, Thome and Ramirez all combined at 3 for 26 with three RBI!! The Indians must hit or the Braves will sweep them in four games!

Look for the Indians to bounce back and win two out of three games at home!

The A's manager, Tony LaRussa, received a five year, $7 million contract to manage the St. Louis Cardinals. Bad news for A's fans.

The Sacramento Knights rewarded the crowd of 13,101, the biggest in franchise history, with a 5-4 sudden death overtime win Monday night at Arco Arena. The Knights broke an 11-game winning streak for the Monterrey La Raza, which won Saturday's opener 12-6 in Mexico. The best of three CISL Championship series ends on Saturday in Monterrey, Mexico.

Raider frosh football fights to the finish in tight 19-16 loss

By Chuck Robinson

It looked like Colfax was going to blow the River City High School freshman football team away, but the Raiders refused to be swept under the turf.

Colfax, in the second quarter, scored on a 24-yard run and kicked to lead, 7 to 0. Colfax scored again on a 7-yard run, but the run failed, making the score 13 to 0. In the fourth quarter, Colfax scored on a 2-yard run and the kick failed, extending Colfax's lead to 19-0. River City would not give up, and Dominique Alpers scored on a 7-yard run, passing to Malcom Floyd for 2 points to trail, 8 to 19. With 1:10 left in the game, River City scored on a 48-yard pass from Floyd to Frank Valdez, and Felix Timas passed the conversion to Floyd, only to lose -- by a score of 16 to 19.

On offense, Dominique Alpers rushed for 38 yards; Adam Wickliffe, 37 yards; Alfredo Rodriguez, 36 yards; William Snow, 28 yards; Malcom Floyd, 14 yards; Gilbert Savala, 12 yards; and Felix Timas, 1 yard.

The defense was led by Alpers, with 2 tackles, 4 assists, 1 fumble recovery, 1 blocked kick; Malcom Floyd, 2 tackles, 4 assists, 1 pass interception, 1 fumble recovery; Alfredo Rodriguez, 3 tackles, 1 assist, 1 fumble recovery; Ricky Santos, 4 tackles, 1 assist; Adam Wickliffe, 1 tackle, 3 assists, 1 quarterback sack; and Mathew Ausborn, 1 tackle, 2 assists, 1 fumble recovery.

Coach Chris Baker said, "That was a well-played football game. With a break here or there, we certainly could have beaten them. But it was an inspired effort. I though both teams were exceptional, and I was proud of our team."

R.C. rushed for 116 yards and passed for 94 yards, for a total of 260 yards. Colfax rushed for 221 yards, and passed for 21 yards, for a total of 242 yards.

River City's record is 3-3 in league and 4-3 overall. This week on Thursday night, the Raiders will play at home against Golden Sierra. Game time is 6 p.m.

OPINION

News-Ledger Editorial

A single well water test is not cause to panic

There is a fine line between "concern" and "alarm," and another fine line between "alarm" and "panic."

So when business, government and the media unearth some potentially disturbing news, it is important how they handle it. It is also important that the public learn to ask the right questions, and learn to react with both caution and healthy skepticism.

Caution, in that we must all err on the safe side in the decisions affecting the health and safety of ourselves and our families.

Healthy skepticism, because we have learned that the powers that be -- even those we have elected -- do not always serve us well. Sometimes, in crisis, they opt to keep us underinformed or even misinformed to make their own jobs easier.

So when a story such as one this week about possibly tainted water found in a well used by a school, we must all find a balance in our reaction.

For the school or government officials to withhold information can backfire when the public starts to ask questions. Keeping the public in the dark can lead to rumors, anger and panic, even if the original situation was not serious. And for the public to leap to conclusions before all the information is in can also be harmful.

So we look for balance, and wait for the rest of the answers.

In this case, members of the public learned of the potential water problem and expressed difficulty in getting answers to their questions. School officials were difficult to immediately reach, but local officials seemed forthcoming to the News-Ledger, and only time will tell whether there was ever any health threat to anyone from the water.

It could, after all, have been a false test result in the first place which drew attention to the water problem. Further test results could produce a clean bill of health for the well water.

In the meantime, is it prudent for the school to switch to bottled water for drinking?

Of course.

Is it advisable for others in West Sacramento who use well water, particularly those close to the Linden Rd. location of the school, to switch to bottled water for drinking and cooking?

Possibly. It's a judgment call.

Is there any reason to panic?

Of course not.

The key is to take adequate and reasonable precautions while waiting for more answers, and then to insist on full and accurate disclosure in those answers.

Letters to the Editor

Profitable non-profit

During October our city leaders approved the Washington Commons Multifamily Affordable Housing Project (APN#10-451-09) by the St. Anton's Partners LLC, a Non-Profit Corporation, as is the West Sacramento Housing Development Corporation, to which the project will revert upon completion, including financing.

The project will be located on the block between 7th and 8th and between E and F Streets, just west of the East Yolo Manor Apartments. The land is now owned by Lighthouse Marina and Riverbend Development and, as such, the WCMAHP will satisfy the affordable housing requirement of Lighthouse and construction of these two-story units (90 of them) means that no such units will be built closer to Lighthouse...for now, anyhow.

But I learned one of the three St. Anton's Partners was none other than Dan Ramos (son of Frank Ramos, developer), developer who now lives in Davis. Heretofore, I had not associated the Ramos family with "non-profit development," and I became curious and discovered:

1. St. Anton's will make a profit of 12 percent to 15 percent on the construction of those 90 units;

2. St. Anton's will revert to WSHCD (as above) and as with the new units on West Capitol Ave., what would be profits are non-taxable since the NPC ultimately invests its "profits" in like housing later;

3. WSHDC has a "small interest" in the Maple-Holly project;

4. They will be charging something like $389/month for one-bedroom units to $789/month for four-bedroom units..but it will take 2 1/2 months rent just to move in...does that sound more like a lease? Kinda expensive for "affordable" housing that won't get subsidized, eh?;

5. As a non-profit corp., no property taxes will be paid and some of its fees have been waived or reduced;

6. If WSHDC should somehow be unable to continue, the City of West Sacramento would inherit the project;

7. I suggested that city staff convince YoloBus to do "detour-loops" and have shelters installed to serve those residents and I emphasized the Maple-Holly units are over twice as far from the nearest bus stop; and,

8. Guest parking will be on the tennis/basketball court.

NPC's pay no taxes and Lighthouse pays very little until some houses are built. But are the rents NPCs charge that much lower than "regular rents?" Additions and corrections welcome.

Re: Presidents' Club

About three years ago three non-profit groups planned a major fundraiser, a crab feed, on the same Saturday. None of the groups did as well as they had anticipated.

Two years ago the Presidents' Club was organized as a means of helping our non-profit organizations be more aware of what activities were being planned by other groups in order to help avoid scheduling our major fundraising events on the same dates, if possible. As groups planned, they notified the Presidents' Club, who in turn sent out a calendar of events throughout the community. This gave additional public relations to the events.

The Chamber of Commerce also helped by displaying a year-round calendar at their office. This enables everyone to check months ahead for annual events.

On November 21, a special meeting of the Presidents' Club has been called, by the Board of Directors, to discuss the future of this organization. This meeting will be held at 5:30 p.m., on the third floor of the Port Building, in the board room.

The second item on the agenda will be a discussion on the Annual Founders Day Picnic. This is an event that has celebrated the work done by this community to become a city. It has also been a time when all non-profit groups have been able to make their presence known by their booths and other activities. To help us decide if this event should continue we will be giving notice to the public, as well as the non-profit groups.

Please share this information with the members of your organization and select a member to attend this meeting to express your group's opinions.

Greedy labor

In the Port of Sacramento -- Our Public Port -- over the past 20 years, the Pacific Maritime Association (A Non-Profit Association of Multi-Billion dollar Shipping Companies) and ILWU (Longshore Union) have unjustly denied Sacramento casual longshoremen who have worked in the Port for 5-10-15-20 years of a living wage including their already earned fringe benefits such as medical/dental care, pensions, vacation pay, and PGP (the Pay Guarantee Plan which pays union longshoremen up to $860 a week when there is no work in their port -- definite income security).

Next month, as the Sacramento Port Director John Sulpizio stated, the Port of Sacramento will start to export 450,000 tons of rice to Japan under the Gatt agreement.

Yet the following corrupt and greedy practices will continue: Doubling-Tripling back whereby union longshoremen will take two or three eight-hour paid jobs in a single 24-hour period by working only four hours of each eight-hour shift and Payroll Padding. And to add insult to injury, bringing in other union longshoremen from high work opportunity ports such as Los Angeles and San Francisco to work in the port. While these long-time Sacramento casual longshoremen are denied a living wage and our community is denied employment opportunities.

Why? Why should Taxpayers, Consumers, and Our Community continue to support these corrupt and unethical practices in our port for the select and chosen few. I thought this port which was built by the taxpayers and supported by the taxpayers throughout the years (from 1963) was for the benefit of the whole community.

Port officials including Port Director Sulpizio who started as assistant director in 1987 and is aware of these practices, port commissioners, Congressman Vic Fazio -- the congressman got the port 50 million tax dollars in 1989 alone -- rice farmers (Government Aid recipients/Rice burners/Polluters), and the PMA-ILWU like the status quo.

It is time to change the status quo of corruption and greed in our port by eliminating these practices. Either they start to share the wealth with these long-time Sacramento casual longshoremen and our community -- by advertising these $15 dollar an hour longshore jobs to the public -- or we should close this port.

And by the way, Port Director Sulpizio has recently asked for a raise from $88,000 to $105,000 plus a lucrative package of fringe benefits despite the Port losing $750,000 last year (1994-95).

This week's comments:

I was calling about your front page article about Jack in the Box closing at Harbor and West Capitol. I believe there's no way it could have stayed in business because of the way they have it blocked off for construction (improvements to Harbor Blvd.). Take it from someone who lives on Harbor Blvd., it's a mess out here.

Now that the new street signs are up at Michigan and Maple, I hope they will be the miracle signs that make the bicycles stop.

In all my years in West Sacramento, I have seen very few bicycles stop at stop signs or observe any other rules of the road, adults as well as children.

Too many fees

I want to thank the good citizens of West Sacramento for all the calls I have received since my last letter. I know most of you said you were already registered to vote, and some of you said you would register, but did not give me a call. It is good to hear so many of you think the same way I do on most issues.

This week I want to tell you about the Debt Fee the city had been charging for a single family house hook up. I told you this rate was way too high in a letter not too long ago. Well, the city finance director must of decided to check because he has put out figures that now support what I said.

The following figures are before the county and school fees are added into the equations (there is a city charge of $3 per square foot for schools added to the above house fee):

Woodland-Southeast (city-project), Yolo County, $17,583 total city, area and debt fees;

Davis (South Davis), Yolo County, $17,648 total fees;

Dixon (West A St.), Solano County, $22,943 total fees;

Laguna West, Sacramento County, $18,801 total fees;

Galt-Northeast Area, Sacramento County, $19,563 total fees;

Folsom-Broadstone, Sacramento County, $24,153 total fees;

North Natomas, Sacramento County, $17,534 total fees;

Roseville-North West, Placer County, $16,564 total fees;

Rocklin-Stanford Ranch, Placer County, $21,171 total fees;

Average of all nine projects, $19,551 total fees.

West Sacramento, Yolo County, $24,499 total fees.

Fat? Sick and Tired?

So was I. Overweight, suffering from chronic fatigue, experiencing hair loss, anxiety resulting in heart palpitations, and poor diet attached to a high stress work environment, blah, blah, blah. . . (Sound familiar?)

Well, today I have lost over 50 lbs., I weigh what I did as a high school junior nearly 18 years ago, the hair loss has stopped, the heart problems have ceased, my diet has greatly improved, and I no longer experience the high stress in virtually the same line of business.

division at $31,285.00 must have some special circumstances causing it to be quite higher. All the other cities have much lower figures. The average for the nine other cities is $19,551.00. This puts the cost in West Sacramento at $4,948.00 more than the average of the other cities in the area. Have we put honest costs on our new developments or has the finance director tired to charge as much as he could get away with? Is the three majority delaying our future with unrealistic nonsense? You and I love our little city, but if you were a newcomer to the area and looking for a house, wouldn't you look for a home that would be less expensive but the same square footage? Did the city council take any of this into account when they were setting up the fee structure? Do they ever check what is going on in other jurisdictions? (We all know the council and staff never saw an increase they didn't like). Does the council always have to automatically accept what the staff brings them. Don't we want a council made up of independent thinkers with good common business sense? The only restraint on the outrageous fee structure, recommended by the city finance director, is the good sense of our council. The voting citizens are not affected by this, as they are in place and not bothered directly. All these outrages do have an effect on our city, in the opinion of this businessman. That is one of the reasons our city has been ignored for the last ten years.

The staff must of found out how out of line the current rate is because they are now proposing dropping the fee from $24,499.00 to $20,725.00. This is a 17. percent decrease but is it enough? If these were honest figures in the first place, how can staff now be suggesting lowering this $4,000.00.

West Sacramento will still be higher than most of the surrounding cities. Don't we want to be competitive? Where is the city going to get growth and tax base to finance the top-rated city we all want. Have you wondered why there have been no houses built behind Touchstone or around the golf course? Could it be the fee structure has raised the price of new houses out of sight?

When you and I bought our homes, all the improvements were done with bond issues. I know we have ours and it's not our problem but where are your children and grandchildren going to live?

How about the commercial area the city wants over $200,000.00 per acre in fees to build, this is two or three times what it will cost just to purchase the property. Can anyone afford this? How can the city justify these outrageous fees?

The church bought the El Rancho Hotel sight (17 acres) completely built with sound and usable buildings and all connected for $2,000,000.00. Where were the city council when this was going on? If the land were vacant, it would cost over $3,500,000.00 for the fees. Does this make sense? West Sacramento needs to be competitive.

Another example brought to my attention last week was about the Albertson supermarket chain. They were interested in establishing in Southport. They located the land at less than $100,000.00 per acre, which they thought reasonable. The next step was to go the city commissars and check rules, regulations, fees, and anything else that they would have to do. They were told that the fee to build would be over $200,000.00 per acre.

The bottom line is that Albertson's will not come to Southport. Who loses? The people of the city? What do they lose? Without a supermarket, the building of houses will be slower. There will be a loss of property tax, a lot of property tax. Just consider the houses on Park Boulevard, Virginia, and the other streets in developed West Sacramento were bought and pay taxes on from maybe $40,000.00 to $100,000.00. The base cost of the houses in Southport will be over $200,000.00. Just look at the increase in our tax base for parks, police, fire protection, and all the other nice things that make our city a more liveable place. Is it smart to give up these advantages by trying to bleed anybody that wants to set up a business or a home in our city? This does not mention increased sales tax and also the relief of traffic on the bridge. The high fees are shortsighted and will retard growth not increase revenue.

If you have a good product, the price is right and a little public relations you are going to make sales. The good citizens of West Sacramento deserve to have large and small retailers like our neighboring cities but he stores will not come until it is financially feasible to build their stores so we need to be competitive monetarily and not harassed by the bureaucracy. We also need a population base so we need to be competitive. The bottom line is that as long as the three majority control of the city council stays the same, we are in for stagnate and hard times. Nobody in their right mind wants to deal with the three majority and their staff.

I would like you to continue to call me at 371-1818 with your thoughts about our city. In January, I would like to start thinking about a few candidates to run for city council that have business sense and are willing to treat our new citizens the way we would like to be treated. This will never happen with the three majority. It is time we get this city moving. It's time for a change.

Two women will report on China's UN conference

From Baha'is of West Sacramento

Two members of the Baha'i community traveled to Beijing, China for the United Nation's Fourth World Conference on Women. On Saturday, October 28, at 2 p.m., Edna Thompson and Carol Noah will speak at the Turner Library in West Sacramento on the subject, "Look at the World Through Women's Eyes." The public meeting is open to everyone.

The worldwide Baha'i community has long been involved in promoting the advancement of women. A primary motivation for such activity is the firm belief in advancement of women as a prerequisite for world peace. Currently Baha'is sponsor more than 1,300 social and economic development projects around the world, ranging from schools, to environmental projects to health projects. In many of these projects, efforts to promote the advancement of women is a key element. For example, in the curriculum of Baha'i schools, the principle of the equality of men and women is firmly stressed. Please call 372-3387 for more information.

WATER: more tests needed

ary measure, his department immediately recommended that people at the school stop drinking its well water after the first test indicated there might be a problem.

"If we find out there is a problem, then we will step up our investigation," To said.

If the new tests confirm the elevated levels of radioactivity, it will mean that "either a mass of soil has become more active that normal, or materials have been injected by someone," he continued.

Testing for radioactivity is not a normal procedure, according to To. Because Yolo County does not normally have a high level of radioactivity in the ground, the state does not require testing for it.

"It was almost by accident. We sent the sample to a private lab, and they tested for everything," To said.

According to West Sacramento Fire Chief Frederic Postel, who says he got his information from To, the school is still using the well water "for flushing and washing purposes."

The initial tests found "a little more 'beta' activity above background radiation. A piece of paper would stop it, but you shouldn't drink it -- it will go into your system," Postel said.

LAFCO: would-be developer backs out

from within, according to Kempler.

The county Board of Supervisors has established policies which say that cities should fill in the open spaces inside their borders before annexing and developing land in the county. Another policy, backed by state law, tries to protect agricultural land from development.

Both of these policies make residential or commercial development of areas near the northern West Sacramento border unlikely in the near future.

At the time Merwyn and Associates withdrew its request, the LAFCO staff had gone as far as accepting bids from 3 consulting firms for an Environmental Impact Reports (EIR) and doing some preliminary draft work on the study itself. State law requires that an EIR be done in conjunction with a SOI.

West Sacramento is due for another SOI in 1996. Because the cities of Davis and Woodland both have studies due in the next two years, LAFCO staff is not sure when the next West Sacramento study will actually be done.

If you don't read the News-Ledger, you simply aren't fully informed about West Sacramento.

RAIDERS

21. There was just over one minute remaining on the clock with Colfax on offense. Three pass interference penalties were called against River City. The crowd started booing the referees, letting them know about their dissension. A 20-yard pass to #80 brought Colfax down to the four-yard line. It finally all came down to one play with four seconds left, and the final pass was incomplete.

There was much excitement, happiness, and emotional feelings on the Raiders' sideline. While Coach Massey was giving hugs to his players, the others put their lacrimal glands to work and let their tears pour out in happiness. River City will face off against Marysville next Friday, at Marysville. The Raiders are now 5-2 (3-1) in league, with three games (not including playoffs) remaining in the season.

will be received at the Department of Community Development, 1951 South River Road, West Sacramento, California 95691, until 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, November 7, 1995 at which time they will be publicly opened and read in the Conference Room at said address.
General Work Description: The removal and replacement of regulatory and safety signs, sign posts, and related appurtenances at various locations within the City of West Sacramento.

This contract has a completion time of One Hundred (100) Working Days.

This Project has a goal of 10 percent Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) participation.

No pre-bid meeting is scheduled for this project.

THIS PROJECT IS SUBJECT TO THE "BUY AMERICA" PROVISIONS OF THE SURFACE TRANSPORTATION ACT OF 1982 AS AMENDED BY THE INTERMODAL SURFACE TRANSPORTATION EFFICIENCY ACT OF 1991.

At the time this contract is awarded, the Contractor shall possess a Class A General Engineering Contractor's License or a Class C-32 Specialty License.

This contract is subject to State contract nondiscrimination and compliance requirements pursuant to Government Code, Section 12990.

Condensed plans, specifications, and proposal forms for bidding this project can only be obtained at the Office of the Director of Community Development of the CITY OF WEST SACRAMENTO, located at 1951 South River Road, West Sacramento, California 95691 (telephone 916-373-5850). A non-refundable payment of $15.00 for each set is required if picked up, and $20.00 if mailed. Full-size sets of Plans and Sign Schedule have been prepared and available for inspection at the Department of Community Development. Full-size sets of Plans and Sign Schedule will be made a part of the contract upon award of the contract.

No bid will be accepted unless it is made on the Proposal Form provided in these Special Provisions.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein.

The Department of Community Development hereby notifies all bidders that it will affirmatively insure that in any contract entered into pursuant to the advertisement, disadvantaged business enterprises will be afforded full opportunity to submit bids in response to this invitation and will not be discriminated against on the grounds of race, color, or national origin in consideration for an award.

Pursuant to Section 1773 of the Labor Code, the general prevailing rate of wages in the City in which the work is done has been determined by the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations. For bidding purposes these wage rate publications may be examined at the offices described above where project plans, Special Provisions, and proposal forms may be obtained. Future effective wage rates which have been predetermined and are on file with the Department of Industrial Relations are referenced but not printed in said publication.

Minimum wage rates for this project as predetermined by the Secretary of Labor are set forth in the Special Provisions. If there is a difference between the minimum wage rates predetermined by the Secretary of Labor and the prevailing wage rates determined by the Department of Industrial Relations for similar classifications of labor, the Contractor and his subcontractors shall pay not less than the higher wage rate. The Community Development Department will not accept lower State wage rates not specifically included in the Federal wage determinations. This includes "helper" (or other classifications based on hours of experience) or any other classification not appearing in the Federal wage determinations. Where Federal wage determinations do not contain the State wage rate determination otherwise available for use by the Contractor and subcontractors, the Contractor and subcontractors shall pay not less than the Federal minimum wage rate which most closely approximates the duties of the employees in question.

The City reserves the right to reject any and all bids, and to determine which proposal is, in its judgment, the lowest responsible bid of a responsible bidder and which proposal should be accepted in the best interests of the City.

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may be otherwise interested in the will or estate, or both, of Louis Dean Bowler:

A PETITION has been filed by Norman Bowler in the Superior Court of California, County of Yolo.

THE PETITION requests that Norman Bowler be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A PETITION for determination of or confirmation of property passing to or belonging to a surviving spouse under California Probate Code section 13650 IS JOINED with the petition to administer the estate.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Nov. 17, 1995 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept. 4, located at Yolo County Superior Court, 725 Court Street, Woodland, CA 95695.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in section 9100 of the California Probate Code. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a formal Request for Special Notice of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in section 1250 of the California Probate Code. So you want to place a classified ad. Here's what you need to know:

1. Deadline is Monday to make Wednesday's paper.

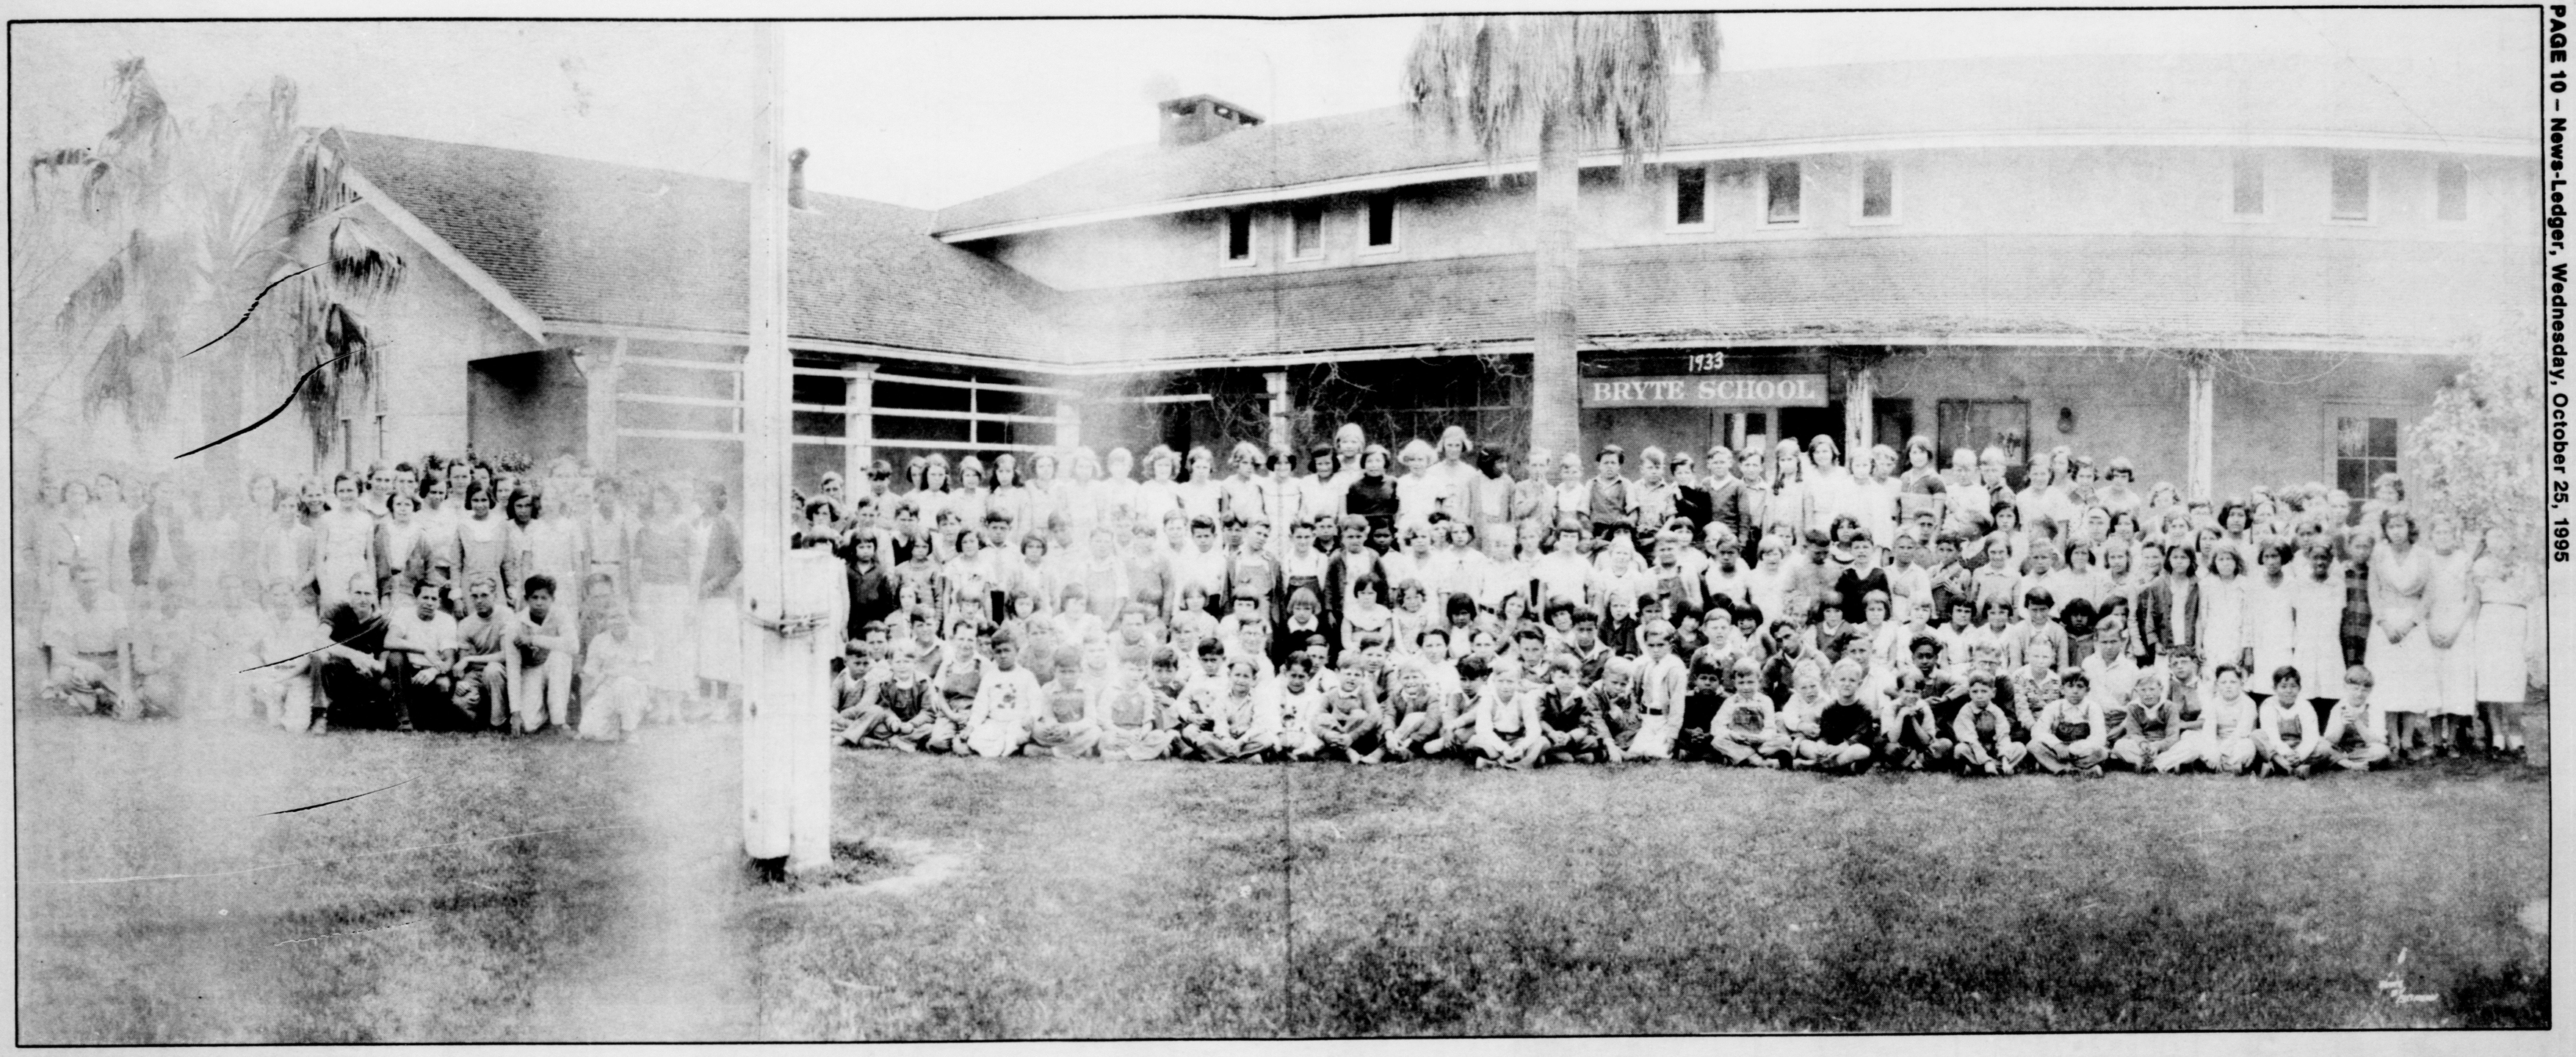
2. We ask that you prepay for the ad whenever possible.

3. The cost is $3.50 for up to 25 words, and $0.10 for each additional word. We trust you to count your words and pay the right amount.

4. You may mail your ad to P.O. Box 463, W. Sacto., CA 95691. Or you can drop it off at our office, 816 Westacre Rd. There is a mail slot in the door so you don't have to worry about missing the deadline just because we happen to be out of the office. It's always fine to drop your ad through the mail slot.

5. In a pinch, you can call your ad in and pay for it later. If you don't catch us, feel free to leave your message and your ad on our answering machine (371-8030). Don't forget to leave your phone number so we can call you back if we have to.

6. We always appreciate your business.



Picture from the Past

This photo of the 1933 enrollment at Bryte School on Lisbon Ave. (now an apartment complex) comes to us courtesy of Louisa Vessell and the West Sacramento Historical Society. A number of current city residents have recognized themselves and their relatives in the picture. Alyce Kingsbury Norman was principal at the school at the time the picture was taken. She, of course, now has a West Sacramento elementary school named after her.

Some interest was raised at the News-Ledger over the fact that several of the children (for example, the boy in the front row four kids to the right of the column) are wearing "Mickey Mouse" sweaters. Could the photo possibly have been taken in 1933? Is Mickey Mouse really that old? It appears so. A call to the Disney company revealed that Mickey was "born" in 1928, when he was converted from a character called "Steamboat Willie."

Flu season:

Immunization schedule for seniors

Mid-October to mid-November is the time for senior flu shots. A flu shot clinic will be held in West Sacramento on two different occasions during the month of November. One will take place on Wednesday, November 1, from 9 to 11 a.m. at Sam Coombs Center, 205 Stone Blvd.; the other will be held on Wednesday, November 15, from 9 to 11 a.m. at the West Sacramento Senior Center, 664 Cummins Way.

The 1995-96 influenza vaccine provides protection against A/Texas, A/Johannesburg, and B/Beijing. Persons allergic to eggs should not be given the flu shot. Charges for immunizations are $4 for the flu shot (given every year); $8 for Pneumovax (given one time only); and $10 for TD (given every ten years).

Beginning this year, if you belong to an HMO (Health Maintenance Organization), you must go to your doctor for your shots. If, however, you choose to come to the clinic, you will have to pay. The clinic cannot do the billing.

Food Distribution

Food products will be distributed to low-income eligible residents on October 28 at Golden State Middle School between 8:30 and 10:30 a.m.; and at Sam Combs Activity Center between 9 and 10 a.m. Items will include butter, rice, salad dressing and macaroni. Halloween dinner/dance will benefit county's suicide prevention team

Suicide Prevention of Yolo County (SPYC) is holding its second annual Halloween dinner and dance, the "Monster Bash II," featuring Mumbo Gumbo, on October 28 at the Veterans' Memorial Center in Davis.

Since 1966, Suicide Prevention has been providing uninterrupted crisis line service, 24 hours a day, to residents of Yolo County. This charity event, co-sponsored by the Davis Food Co-op, will help support Suicide Prevention's crisis line and support services, educational programs, and the new Allied Service for Kids (ASK) teen hotline.

Come in costume and try your luck at winning many raffle prizes donated by local merchants. Prizes include dinner, hotel and movie tickets, gift certificates for merchandise and services, and a red/white beach cruiser. We will also be having a silent auction featuring a white water rafting trip, both personal and car security systems, and many fine wines. Costume judging will be held during the dinner and the dance so dress up and take home more prizes!

For ticket reservations for the dinner/dance, call Suicide Prevention at 756-7542 or purchase your tickets at the Davis Food Co-op, 620 G Street in Davis.
